

Leave our Wisconsin no-call list alone! If you want to change anything, change the federal list to the protection we have. Businesses do not have a right to call us based on some contact they may have had in the past. If they want to contact us, send us a letter (the Postal Service can use the business). If we are interested in a product/business, we will contact them!